

Work Experience

🍃 Holland and Foley Architecture, Northport, Maine (1993-present)

Partner in firm providing design services, with emphasis on environmentally friendly design and construction. Numerous residential and commercial projects with budgets from $15,000 to $1,100,000.

🍃 William R. Sepe, Architect and Planner, Camden, Maine (1987-1993)

Participated in over 40 projects with architecture firm emphasizing energy-efficient buildings; supervised construction on projects with budgets from $10,000 to $1.1 million. Managed construction of six projects with budgets from $250,000 to $800,000, hiring and supervising subcontractors, estimating and ordering materials, and meeting schedule and budget constraints.

🍃 Residential Design Consultant, Oakland, California (1986-1987)

Provided design and drafting services for residential projects in the San Francisco Bay region.

🍃 Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, Berkeley, California (1984-1986)

Research Assistant in Building Energy Analysis Program; developed and tested computer simulation models of building energy performance, especially relating to natural ventilation; built and tested physical building models in wind tunnel; coauthored and edited several research papers.

🍃 Maine Office of Energy Resources, Bangor and Augusta, Maine (1980-1983)

Energy Conservation Specialist staffing field office serving seven counties; developed and led workshops on home energy improvements, solar and wind energy, and transportation energy conservation; instituted energy-efficient mortgage program at two local banks; conducted hundreds of home energy audits, taught practical conservation techniques to hundreds of people.

Related Experience

🍃 Instructor of on-line courses in Sustainable Design at the Boston Architectural College, Boston MA 2006 to Present.

🍃 One of six U.S. recipients of the 1996 German Marshall Fund Environmental Fellowship, for travel and study in Europe. Researched environmental building in Germany, the Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden and Norway.

🍃 Facilities Caretaker, Tanglewood 4-H Camp and Learning Center, Lincolnville, Maine, 1994 and 1995; seasonal employment maintaining and renovating buildings, trails, bridges and other facilities.

🍃 Construction experience in new construction and remodeling, ongoing since 1973.

🍃 Chairman of the Northport Planning Board 1992 to 2004.

🍃 Co-founded and co-managed Benloch Farm Ski Touring Center, Dixmont, Maine, 1979-1993; designed and helped build 26-mile Nordic ski trail system; helped with all aspects of business.

Education

🍃 Master of Architecture, University of California at Berkeley, 1987; recipient of American Institute of Architects Scholarship Award.

🍃 Master of Professional Studies in Resource Economics, University of Maine at Orono, 1979.

🍃 A.B., cum laude, Community Planning and Design, Dartmouth College, Hanover, N.H., 1978.